SOUTHLAKE CHAMBER GIVES BACK TO LOCAL TEACHERS AND STUDENTS!

Southlake, Texas –

Starting in 2006, the Southlake Chamber's board of directors voted to recognize Carroll ISD Teachers of the Year for their continued dedication to producing quality students. On Monday, May 12th, Chamber President Giovanna Phillips recognized each CISD Teacher of the Year with a $100 contribution and the two district Teachers of the Year a $500 contribution. The campus Teacher's of the Year include:

- Pam Platt
- Polly Allen
- Becky Sewell
- Julie Graviett
- Trisha Pate
- Kim Bell
- Susan Herndon
- Julie Presley
- Lora Benedetti

The district Teacher's of the Year were:

- Julie McCurley
- Chris Underwood

Every year the Chamber also donates two $1,000 scholarships to two graduating Carroll Senior High School Seniors. This year those two well-deserving recipients were:

- Tyler Liu
- Lauren Brooks

The Chamber donates the scholarships as a sign of support for the CISD for continually producing students who will no doubt, met the future needs of businesses. The Chamber congratulates both of these students, as well as the Teacher of the Year recipients and wishes them all the best of luck in the future.
