SOUTHLAKE CHAMBER MEMBER RECEIVES INDIVIDUAL COMMUNITY MOTIVATOR AWARD!

Southlake, Texas –

Governor Rick Perry and OneStar Foundation recently announced the winners of the 25th annual Governor's Volunteer Awards. Among them was Southlake Chamber Board Member Kelley Pledger, of the Star-Telegram. Pledger was awarded the individual Community Motivator award for her promotion of an ethic of service and true compassion for others. Pledger, who resides in Colleyville, is involved with over 33 charitable nonprofit and civic organizations. Candidate's go through a three tiered selection process and a vote by a committee appointed by the Governor.

Pledger, among the other award winners, will be honored by Texas State Comptroller, Susan Combs, in Austin, Texas at 5:00 PM on June 4 at the Driskill Hotel.

On behalf of the Southlake Chamber of Commerce, we would like to congratulate Pledger along with the other award recipients on a job well-done. For more information please contact Courtney Suhr of OneStar Foundation at Courtney@onestarfoundation.org or by calling (512) 287-2014.
