CITIZEN OF THE YEAR NOMINATIONS NOW BEING ACCEPTED

Southlake, Texas –

Nominations for Southlake's Citizen of the Year are currently being accepted. Coach Todd Dodge received the honor last year, joining the list of honorees receiving the award since it began in 1988. The Southlake Chamber of Commerce will once again bestow the honor of "Citizen of the Year" at its annual awards banquet being held on Friday, February 29.

Nominees must meet the following criteria:

- Southlake resident and/or Southlake Chamber of Commerce member for three years prior to nomination.
- Volunteered time and leadership to improve economic, civic and cultural well-being to the Southlake.
- Not be the immediate Past Chairman of the Chamber.

Nominations forms can be submitted by anyone and are available online at www.southlakechamber.com, or by emailing jami@southlakechamber.com. Return completed nominations to the Southlake Chamber of Commerce at info@southlakechamber.com, 1501 Corporate Circle, Ste. 100, Southlake, TX 76092, or 817-749-8202 fax.

Friday, February 15, 2008 is the deadline for nominations!

Local residents are also encouraged to provide suggestions for local business awards as well, including the small business and corporate business of the year. The community is invited to attend as legendary baseball player and manager Bobby Bragan shares his story of leadership and servitude with attendees.

Seating is limited. Reservations can be made online by Monday, February 25, at www.southlakechamber.com, or by calling 817-481-8200. Tickets are $35 per person for this event held at Marriot Solana.
